

IDEX Corporation's Denise Cade Selected as One of 2018 Most Influential Black Lawyers by Savoy Magazine

June 28, 2018

LAKE FOREST, Ill.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 28, 2018-- IDEX Corporation's (NYSE:IEX) Denise Cade, senior vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary has been selected as one of Savoy magazine's 2018 Most Influential Black Lawyers in recognition of her distinguished legal career and outstanding commitment to the community.

Being named to this prestigious list is a competitive process reserved for elite influencers and achievers in today's corporate and private practice leaders in the legal community.

"We are very fortunate to have strong, talented leaders like Denise on the IDEX team," said Chairman and CEO, Andy Silvernail. "This important recognition is a testament to her knowledge, experience, and expertise."

Cade has a long and esteemed legal career. She joined IDEX in 2015 from SunCoke Energy where she held the role of senior vice president, general counsel, corporate secretary and chief compliance officer. Prior to SunCoke, she worked for PPG Industries, Inc. based in Pittsburgh, PA in several different roles including general counsel of the Glass and Fiber Glass Division, chief M&A counsel, chief securities & finance counsel, and assistant general counsel & corporate secretary. She started her career in private practice in Washington, DC at Hopkins & Sutter and Shaw Pittman, LLC. Cade holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from Marquette University and a juris doctorate from Georgetown University Law Center. Cade devotes time to organizations that prioritize the professional development and advancement of women and people of color, including The Chicago Network, where she was recently elected to the Board, The Executive Leadership Council, The Executives' Club of Chicago, and the Georgetown Law Alumni Board.
