Item 1.01 - Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 4, 2016, IDEX Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”) with Premier Farnell Corp., a Delaware Corporation (“PF Corp”), Celdis Limited, a private limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales (“Celdis”), and Premier Farnell plc, a public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales and the ultimate parent of Celdis and PF Corp (“Premier Farnell” and, together with PF Corp and Celdis, the “Sellers”), and Akron Brass Holding Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Akron Brass”), pursuant to which the Sellers have agreed to sell to the Company all of the capital stock of Akron Brass (the “Transaction”). Akron Brass is a leading global manufacturer and distributor of mission-critical safety equipment and emergency response products.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, the Company has agreed to acquire Akron Brass for the base purchase price of $224.2 million, which is subject to a post-closing working capital adjustment. The Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and obligations for transactions of this type. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company and the Sellers have agreed to indemnify each other for any breaches of representations and warranties, breaches of covenants and certain other matters, subject to varying survival periods and applicable negotiated caps, baskets, claims procedures and other limitations. The Company has purchased insurance with respect to the representations and warranties of the Sellers, subject to the terms of the policy and certain exclusions, which provides the Company with additional coverage beyond the Sellers’ indemnification in the event of a breach of the Sellers’ representations and warranties. During the period between signing of the Agreement and closing of the Transaction, Akron Brass has agreed to (and has agreed to cause its subsidiary to) conduct their business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice.

The Transaction is subject to customary conditions that are to be met or waived at or prior to the Closing, including the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the approval of the Transaction by the shareholders of Premier Farnell. The Agreement provides that Premier Farnell or the Company may terminate the Agreement prior to the Closing in certain circumstances pursuant to customary termination rights. Upon certain events of termination, including failure of the shareholders of Premier Farnell to approve the Transaction or the sale of Akron Brass to an entity other than the Company, Premier Farnell would be required to pay a $2,242,000 termination fee to the Company.

The foregoing description of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Agreement, which the Company intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission at a later date in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

Item 8.01 - Other Events.

On February 5, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing the entry into the Agreement. A copy of the press release relating to the Transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEFriday, February 5, 2016*IDEX CORPORATION TO ACQUIRE AKRON BRASS

Lake Forest, IL, February 5, 2016 - IDEX CORPORATION (NYSE:IEX) announced today that it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Akron Brass Holding Corp. (the "Company"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Premier Farnell plc ("Premier Farnell"), and a global leader in the manufacturing of safety equipment and emergency response equipment, for a cash consideration of $224.2 million, subject to customary adjustments. Operating under the Akron Brass and Weldon brand names, the Company produces a large array of engineered life-safety products for the safety and emergency response markets, including apparatus valves, monitors, nozzles, specialty lighting, electronic vehicle-control systems and firefighting hand tools.

Located in Wooster, Ohio, Akron Brass had revenues of approximately $120 million for the trailing twelve months ended December 31, 2015 and will operate within the IDEX Fire and Safety/Diversified Products segment. The transaction is conditioned upon the approval of Premier Farnell's shareholders, and is expected to close in approximately 60 days, subject to regulatory approvals and customary closing conditions.

Commenting on the transaction, IDEX Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Andy Silvernail stated, "We are pleased to announce the Akron Brass transaction, and look forward to welcoming them to the IDEX family. Akron Brass' world-class brands and presence as a premier manufacturer of firefighting equipment are an excellent strategic fit within our existing Fire Suppression platform. This combination is a high value-creation opportunity and will expand our leading business in an end market that we are very familiar with.

Over the past 12 months, we have enhanced our focus on finding new adjacencies in our Fire & Safety / Diversified segment, and uncovered some excellent opportunities that have similar attributes to our existing businesses where our operational abilities can be leveraged, and Akron Brass meets these criteria.
